

Attention Tax Council Members:

During the recent legislative session, House Bill 21-1077 was adopted that created a Task Force Concerning Tax Policy which will meet at least four times per year. Details regarding the legislation and the Task Force can be found here.

Currently, the Legislative Council Staff is seeking participants to serve on this Task Force, and the details regarding the application process are also included in the link. Those interested must submit a letter of interest no later than one week following the bill's effective date which is upon the Governor's signature. Once the bill has been signed we will send another reminder with the deadline for the application.
